

DOROTHY IS DELIGHTFUL

Dalton Picture at Rialto
Entertaining; Comedy
Really Funny.

Dorothy Dalton delighted Rialto theater patrons Monday evening when the new film, "L'Apache," was shown for the initial performance. Miss Dalton played a dual part—that of a little Apache girl and that of a beautiful French mademoiselle. The contrast was very well shown.

Mr. Klein, technical director at the Rialto, did himself and the theater a great deal of credit in starting the production for this week. The effect was that of water over which the lighting effect was exceedingly clever, with ships moving in the foreground. The scene had a historical character, the dream of an old soldier as he fell asleep while diving among the relics of his wartime days. The music of the orchestra added much to the effect. The sketch was one of the most clever of all the clever arrangements conceived by Mr. Klein.

A Mack Bennett comedy is enjoyable just because it is so funny it is laughable. It isn't ridiculous like lots of comedy acts, but it is just purely fun. Getting back to the real feature of the performance, "L'Apache," the story is set in Paris. A young girl, an American, goes to Paris to study music through the kindness of her aged grandfather, who becomes infatuated by a very enterprising man and she attempts to kill him in her desperation. However, she is spared from committing the crime by an Apache who kills the man in revenge. The likeness between the young woman and an Apache girl plays a strong part in the story, and the way the Apache girl takes the charge of murder and other charges without breaking her trust of confidence, appeals strongly. It is a story alive with interest and appeal and right up to the Rialto standard of pleasure.

The orchestra's accompaniments were, as usual, good. The musical numbers given between the shows were especially good and deserving of much mention.

One Soldier is Released—
Two Other Men Are Bound Over.

L. E. Zimmer, 31 troop, Eighth cavalry, Fort Bliss, one of four men arrested in September on a charge of appropriating government property, was released Tuesday morning by U. S. commissioner A. J. W. Schmidt, on motion of assistant U. S. district attorney W. H. Fryer.

The case against Zimmer was dismissed, it was said, because the evidence was not sufficient to warrant trial. The other three men arrested with him were Ivan Sprague, Joe Polhemus, alias "Chill" Crawford, and Guy S. Reed. The men are all members of the Eighth cavalry. Zimmer was arrested here and the other men were arrested at Marfa. Sprague also has been released. Polhemus and Reed were bound over to the federal grand jury at their hearing at Marfa, Nov. 11.

The charge against the men accuses them of conspiracy and the theft of government property, including 1500 rounds of ammunition, a pistol, a rifle, some shirts and some coats. The charge is alleged by federal agents to have taken place just before the eighth cavalry came to El Paso and the fifth cavalry went to Marfa.

Made of honor at the English court of this famous step, and, it is said to exact a pledge to this effect on their appointment.

Battle has quite a prominent part and fully lives up to Talmadge reputation.
